Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa: Where business meets the beauty of the winelands

In an era where business events are expected to inspire as much as they inform, choosing the right venue has never been more important.

Today's most successful conferences, executive retreats and corporate gatherings are defined not only by productive meeting spaces, but by experiences that foster collaboration, strengthen relationships and leave a lasting impression. Set against the majestic Hottentots Holland Mountains in the heart of the Helderberg Winelands, Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa provides the ideal setting for corporate events, seamlessly combining exceptional hospitality, versatile venues and world-class leisure offerings in one remarkable destination.

Just 20 minutes from Stellenbosch, 30 minutes from Cape Town International Airport and 45 minutes from Cape Town's CBD, Erinvale combines convenience with a true sense of escape. Surrounded by celebrated wine estates including Vergelegen, Morgenster and Lourensford, and neighbouring the Gary Player-designed Erinvale Golf Course, the boutique hotel places delegates within easy reach of some of the Cape Winelands' most sought-after attractions—striking the perfect balance between productive meetings and memorable downtime.

Beyond its event facilities, Erinvale delivers everything needed for an elevated corporate stay. Luxury accommodation provides a welcoming retreat after a productive day, while award-winning dining, personalised service and the reimagined Erinvale Spa create opportunities to unwind and reconnect. Guests can further enrich their stay with a round on the championship golf course, wine tastings at neighbouring estates or curated local excursions showcasing the very best of the region.

At the heart of Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa's corporate offering are three distinctive event spaces, each designed to accommodate different meeting styles and group sizes. The Oak Boardroom provides an intimate, refined setting for meetings, strategic planning sessions and team lunches for up to 10 delegates. Filled with natural light and equipped with modern conferencing technology, it offers an elegant environment for smaller groups requiring privacy and focus.

The Birch Boardroom is ideally suited to small and medium-sized conferences, workshops and presentations for up to 19. Expansive windows and French doors frame views of the surrounding mountains, creating an inspiring setting that seamlessly blends business with the natural beauty of the estate.

For larger conferences, product launches, gala dinners and celebrations, the Camphor Venue accommodates up to 120 guests and offers exceptional flexibility. Comprising three interleading spaces that can be configured to suit each event's requirements, the venue adapts effortlessly throughout the seasons—from summer gatherings extending into indigenous gardens and tranquil courtyards to sophisticated winter events hosted indoors.

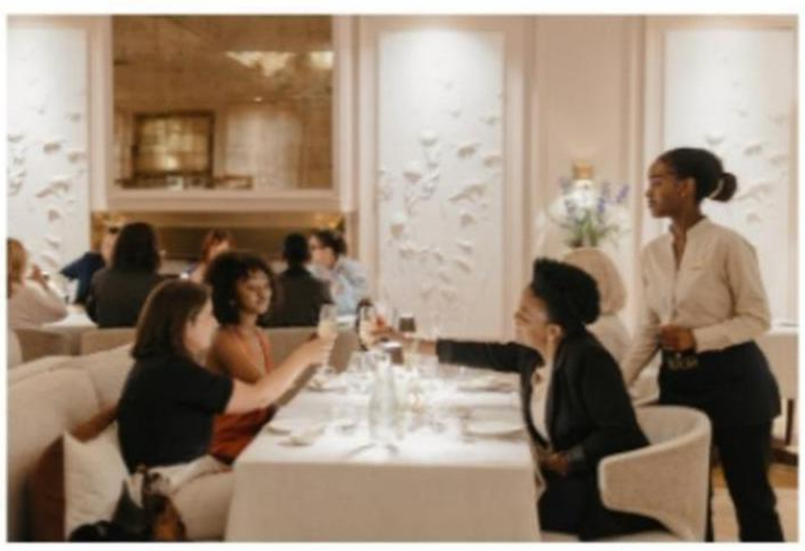

The culinary experience is equally integral to every event. From working breakfasts and business lunches to refined dinners at the hotel's signature BLOOM restaurant, Erinvale's culinary team showcases seasonal ingredients, exceptional flavours and impeccable service, providing the ideal setting to continue conversations long after meetings conclude.

What truly sets Erinvale apart is its ability to deliver more than just a venue. Working closely with planners and clients, the dedicated hospitality team helps bring every vision to life, supporting the event delivery while managing every detail from accommodation and catering to tailored itineraries and seamless execution. Beyond the boardroom, guests can enjoy everything from golf, padel, environmental tours, clay pigeon shooting and team-building activities to luxury on-site spa experiences, before ending the day with world-class dining—from private dinners beneath the stars to curated wine-pairing menus sure to wow.

For organisations seeking a luxury conference venue that combines business with destination appeal, Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa offers an experience that inspires fresh thinking, stronger relationships and memorable outcomes.
